Volunteer, Chaperone and Exhibitor Code of Conduct

As a volunteer for a Skills Canada NWT Event or activity, I have read, understand, and agree to the following terms:

LIABILITY AND MEDICAL RELEASE

I agree to release Skills Canada NWT, its representatives, agents, and employees from liability for any personal injury that may occur while attending any Skills Canada NWT activities, including travel to and from these activities, unless the injury or damage results from deliberate acts of Skills Canada NWT representatives, agents, and employees. I authorize Skills Canada NWT to follow necessary emergency medical procedures or treatment using good faith and best judgment. I agree to indemnify and hold harmless Skills Canada NWT for any and all claims, demands, actions, rights of action, and/or judgments arising from or on account of these emergency medical procedures and/or treatment that were done in good faith and according to accepted medical standards.

PHOTO RELEASE

I agree that any images of me taken during the course of this Skills Canada NWT activity may be used and reproduced by Skills Canada NWT in promotional materials, including print, online and social media. Skills Canada NWT wants every participant to have an enjoyable experience with maximum attention on safety and comfort. All individuals representing Skills Canada NWT, whether staff or volunteers, will be expected to behave in a way that reflects well on the organization. The following “Code of Conduct” has been established by Skills Canada NWT and must be followed at all times. You are a volunteer and as such you agree to follow Skills Canada NWT rules and regulations or you may not be allowed to attend and participate. By signing and returning the “Volunteer & Chaperone Consent Form” you agree to this ‘Code of Conduct’ and you are committing to be the best representative possible. At all times, I will behave in a way that sets a positive example for the youth participants. I will do everything I am assigned and I will be on time.

VOLUNTEER AND CHAPERONE CODE OF CONDUCT

I will not use alcohol and/or drugs (except those prescribed by a doctor). I understand that if I violate the Code of Conduct for any reason, I may be asked to leave the event or activity, and consequently may be excluded from all further Skills Canada NWT events or activities. Criminal History Self-Declaration Skills Canada NWT, as a not-for-profit organization working with youth, is committed to keeping its participants and activities safe at all times. In lieu of completing a formal Criminal Record Check (CRC), we ask that you declare your criminal history. Please note that Skills Canada NWT reserves the right to request the completion of a formal Criminal Record Check & Vulnerable Sector Form completed by the RCMP before participating in any Skills Canada NWT event or activity. I agree, by signing this form, that everything I’m stating is true and may be used by Skills Canada NWT to decide whether I am suitable to be a volunteer or chaperone at Skills Canada NWT events and activities.

Providing a false declaration will result in refusal to participate in future Skills Canada NWT events or activities.
