SKILLS CLUB MANUAL

Getting Started

What is a Skills Club?

A skills club is a club organized and run by anyone who wants to create an opportunity for youth to learn about a specific skill area, trade, or technology. These clubs usually meet for up to 3 hours, once or twice per week. The goal of any skills club is to teach participants about a particular skill, in any one of a number of trade and technology fields.

Skills club participants are encouraged to continue participating in Skills Canada NWT programs by competing in skills competitions at the school level and beyond. Top performing and highly skilled competitors may be invited to attend the Territorial Skills Competition. Skills club leaders are encouraged to support students by providing coaching and mentoring, as well as helping participants prepare for competitions.

Who can start a Skills Club?

Any teacher, parent, or interested volunteer can start a skills club. You do not have to be an expert in the skill area yourself. While experience is important, particularly where safety is concerned, Skills Canada NWT is willing to provide professional development for skills club leaders who would like to improve their own skill.

Who can join a Skills Club?

Any youth who fits within the age category can participate in a skills club. Skills club leaders are expected to set an appropriate age range for their club. This helps to ensure the safety of all participants.

When do Skills Clubs meet?

Skills clubs typically run as extracurricular activities, and club participants will meet outside of school hours or during the lunch hour. However skills clubs can meet whenever is most convenient for them.

Skills clubs can operate for the duration of the school year, or for a shorter period of time. At minimum, skills clubs should run for at least 8 weeks.
